Keeping Up - -

With Uplanders

By V. V. P.

THE KELBER SUIT

One of the big disappointments of the year for the community is the court decision going against the city on the question of the municipality's right to levy extra charges to subdividers as local land use is changed.

The Appelate court has ruled that an Upland city ordinance is invalid. This decision is likely to affect similar ordinances in many California cities.

Theory back of the ordinance was that as citrus groves are converted into use as home sites, the city will need more parks and more flood control protective measures. So, the subdivider was asked to contribute to a special fund on a per lot basis. Then when the time came to buy park sites or to build flood control channels to handle the water running off of paved areas, funds would be available.

But the court says "No." The city had kept the fund intact and now the more than $70,000 will be available for refunding.

The decision means that now the city as a whole will have to pay for the costs of providing for the additional facilities, if and when they are authorized.

Even though there may be no legal foundation for the local policy, it was a sound one.

MATHEMATICS HERE

At least Mathematics and Science classes are getting much attention at the Upland high school. Four-fifths of the student body is registered in a science course, according to Roy Vick and 61 per cent of the students are taking mathematics.

CITY POLITICS

With candidates for supervisor and state assemblymen getting into the campaign well in advance of the usual date for such announcements, how about candidates for the Upland city council?

Not that we are urging anyone to take an unusually early step, it is about time for men and women to get lined up for the bi-annual city election next April.

Three terms will expire, those of Mayor Donald Carr and Councilmen Robert Thrall and Abner Haldeman. We do not know if either of them expect to be candidates for reelection. Their decisions will be known in due time.

When we hear citizens complain about municipal services and costs we suggest, "You ought to be on the city council."

It is easy to complain — and easy to talk and write about how things should be different. Sometimes when all the facts and factors are

PEARL HARBOR DAY

Saturday, Dec. 7, is Pearl Harbor day, marking the 16th anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Honolulu, Hawaii, which resulted in the United States' entry into World War II. This day should long be remembered, not only because of the thousands of American fathers, sons and brothers lost in battle in the succeeding four years, but to insure constant vigil and preparedness on the part of this nation. With the Russian sputniks circling the globe, it seems especially fitting that we are reminded to "be prepared".

THE WORLD GOES ON

One day the Euclid Ave. parkway was a mass of broken limbs, fallen trees and other debris from the big November wind storm, and practically the next day it is cleared of the litter, raked clean, trees repaired, and snow white Christmas trees added for the Christmas season. The trees will soon be lights (within the next week) to enhance the holiday season. It follows that beauty survives the storm, just as life survives death.

Supreme Court Appeal Possible

Appelate Decision Favors Kelber

With Mike Kelber winning his case against the city of Upland, the Upland city councilmen tonight will consider future action, if any. City Attorney Henry M. Busch will report to the officials at a regular council meeting tonight that proponents won in their effort to challenge the city's ordinance requiring subdividers to pay into a park and school site fund and into flood control funds.

If the decision is appealed to the state Supreme court, final outcome will not be known until later. If the Appelate court decision of last week, however, is accepted, the councilmen will be required to refund to Mr. Kelber about $2,000. B. F. Hungerford and J. T. Harris, partners in the development of Harford Pl., and J. Shewell, another subdivider, will also be paid about $2,000.

$73,000 In Fund

In the special subdivision funds created by the city since 1953 is a total of $73,000. The councilmen have been advised not to refund any other payments to other contributors to the fund. Mr. Busch has ruled that "each contributor should be considered separately."

Three judges of the Appelate court ruled the city's ordinance is invalid because a non-chartered city has no right to impose such a law.'

Council Reasoning

The councilmen originally adopted the ordinance on the theory of requiring each developer of new residential lots to contribute to a fund for use in buying park sites, since the additional population would eventually require additional parks. Later, an ordinance was approved to create a fund for the handling of storm water that would result from citrus groves being converted into paved areas with resulting water run-off that would require storm drain construction.

Mr. Kelber, an Ontario city councilman, filed his suit soon after getting city hall approval of a subdivision on N. First Ave. Later the other subdividers joined in the court protest. Subsequent payments by other subdividers were "under protest" but the bulk of the $73,000 fund is in the city treasury without any conditions being placed by the contributors.

Whether all the money will be refunded is to be decided by the city councilmen.

Murder, Suicide For Newlyweds

Richard Holliday Bludgeons Wife, Shoots Self, After 6-Week Marriage; Leaves Note For Sister, Parents

By GERRY McGEER

Murder and suicide disrupted the weekend calm of a quiet street in Cucamonga, Saturday morning, when Richard Holliday, 54, 8107 Tapia via died by his own hand after killing his wife of 1½ months, Margaret Butler Deo Holliday, formerly of Los Angeles and Michigan.

Discovery of the tragedy was made by the dead man's sister, Mrs. John Schubert, 8188 Tokay St., Fontana, shortly after 9 a.m. She had rushed to Cucamonga after receiving an urgent telephone call from her brother to the effect that something was wrong.

Mrs. Schubert, after discovering her sister-in-law's body in the kitchen, fled screaming from the house. She had called her brother's name without response and looked for him in the garage before going across the street to JoAn Evette's beauty clinic.

Telling her story to Jo-An, who is Mrs. Percy Cook, Mrs. Schubert asked her to go over to the Holliday's and confirm what she had seen. After looking in the kitchen Mrs. Cook called the Upland police, who arrived on the scene about 9:30 a.m. and called in the San Bernardino County Sheriff's officers.

Hammer Death Weapon

Deputy Coroner E. J. Coger, arriving shortly afterwards, took charge and the on-the-spot investigations were conducted by Capt. Cecil Meyer of Upland and Det. Bud Confer.

Officers reported that Mrs. Holliday bore marks on her neck and had apparently been hit on the head by a claw hammer. She was in the kitchen and the time of her death was estimated at 6:30 a.m. This was established by a clock, broken and knocked to the floor, in an apparent struggle.

The late Mr. Holliday was in the bedroom. Beside him was a 32 calibre hunting rifle which he had used to kill himself.

Mrs. Schubert, shocked and grieving, said she had no inkling of any trouble between her brother and his wife. She

No reindeer or sleigh for Santa Claus when he visit's Upland, which lies in the somewhat tamed "wild west." Instead, he came to town Friday night for his annual pre-Christmas visit, sponsored by the merchants' division of Upland chamber of commerce, astride his favorite horse, "Chiepica," sleigh bells tinkling across the big horse's chest. Saddle bags were filled with treats for the several hundred children greeting Santa on Second Ave.

Santa Arrives On Horseback

SADDLE BAGS this year held the candy treats Santa gave each child Friday night when he appeared in downtown Upland. Here a tiny tot pushes back his shoulder, holds up his chin and with all the courage he can summon, steps forward to chat with Santa. Other children look on and second from right is Ted Atwood, one of the merchants who brought Santa to town.

Parade Seen By 1500 Here

On horseback with saddle bags filled with candy treats, Santa Claus came to town Friday night to the delight of the largest crowd of children and adults in the history of the pre-holiday visit sponsored by Upland merchants.

With sleigh bells tinkling from a saddle blanket instead of the traditional sleigh, or the fire truck customarily used here in recent years, Santa paraded down Second Ave. on his horse "Chiepica".

Most kiddies are aware of Santa's reindeer and their names, from Prancer to Blitzen, but few know about his big brown horse Chiepica.

Preceding Santa in the parade was the smart stepping Upland Jr. High school drill team and banner carriers, and the Ontario Youth band, whose music heralded the approach of Old St. Nick.

An estimated 700 persons were on hand to greet Santa, and applaud the marching units, and more than 500 candy treats were dispensed by St. Nick as he talked to area children.

Patrolling the Second Ave. parade route during the parade were members of Upland Police Dept. Upland stores were open for the evening and were visited by throngs of shoppers before and after Santa's parade.

General Meeting Of Workers In Fund Drive Is Tonight

First general meeting of workers and the executive group in the St. Joseph's Catholic church and school expansion fund building drive is called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the parish school auditorium. Approximately 180 men are expected at the meeting for discussion to raise $100,000 to complete two new classrooms, a school administration office, needed to fill out the requirements of an eight grade grammar school.

Other Projects

Other projects to be undertaken with the fund will be residential quarters for three additional teaching sisters, an office for the parish rectory, blacktopping, and a utility building which will also serve the St. Vincent de Paul society in carrying out its work in helping the needy. All of this is to be erected before Sept. 1958. Only the new families who have moved into the parish, and also those who for legitimate reasons did not subscribe in the last drive, will be asked to contribute.

Frank Pendergast, local insurance man, who heads up the group as general chairman, highly praised the spirit of willing cooperation that has been found during the several weeks of forming the drive organization. "Parishioners can readily see the need", he said, "and realize that today's costs must be met if an adequate spiritual center is to be enjoyed with its variety of services to parish families."

Project Leaders

Conducting tonight's meeting will be Mr. Pendergast, Dr. Jos. Scanlon and Dr. Jos. Powers, vice chairmen; Messrs. Jos. Trihey, Allen Lynch, Donald Spielberger, Robert Grange, Philip Jacoby and Val Ogella, division chairmen; and the following team captains, each in charge of a group of workers: Richard Baumann, Bernard Ticich, Melvin Leo, Bill Worthing, William Relph, Donald Fink, Robt. Wagner, Harold Krueger, Michael Eannarino, Wm. Callagy, Jerome Bussing, Harry Bangert, Elmer McDaniel, Walter Sebesta, Leo Dandurand, Richard Hyde, John Barrett, Louis Rose, Dean eonard, Ray Tayek, Frank Wucherpfennig, Jos. McFate, Jos. Valentine, Kenneth Olson, Emelio Pascolati, Jas. Hilbe, Jas. Bryant, Radford Sinclair, Tom Swetonic and Wm. Way.

First organization meeting of the new council is scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 11, 7:30 p.m., in the city hall. A district meeting was announced for Tuesday in Rialto, at which a district representative for elections will be named.

During the Monday session, the insurance on players for the coming season was discussed with means of better informing parents of the insurance provisions set forth to avoid misunderstandings. Wm. R. "Bill" Thomas presided at the meeting as chairman pro-tem.

Administrative Head

Mr. Stone's selection as "director of youth athletics" gives him the executive authority over the Assn. council, which will see to the administration of youth athletics in Upland.

E. TWEED STONE

The Assn. was recently formed to enlarge the scope of the former Upland Youth Baseball Assn., and is designed to provide a central management of area athletics, thus admitting sports leagues other than baseball, and providing for girls as well as boys.

As director, Mr. Stone is charged with the responsibility "to initiate passage of statutes by the assembly which standardize athletic rules governing sports activity, player eligibility and selection, and component league adherence to Assn. statutes," as stated in the recently adopted Assn. constitution.

Warder's Successor

The post, which supersedes the former post of Assn. commissioner so capably filled by the late Garwood Warders, is a natural for Mr. Stone, whose record in Scouting began with Upland's first troop, organized by his late father, and continues through years of active Scouting leadership. Other youth work has been accomplished by Mr. Stone while serving as a city councilman and as mayor, and as a member of Upland Rotary club and First Presbyterian church. His interest in the youth of the community has won for him the admiration and respect of Uplanders, reflected in his selection to the important post of "director of youth athletics".

The Rev. Wm. E. Thompson was named publicity chairman for the Assn.

60,019 New Estimate On Ultimate Population

An estimated ultimate population within Upland city's 12 square milies of 60,019 is made by Lyle Stewart, assistant city planning consultant, as the result of a preliminary master plan study.

For the purposes of the estimate, the city was divided into four areas with Foothill Blvd. and Euclid Ave. being the dividing lines. In the estimates, it is presumed that citrus acreage will dominate in the northwest area since the forecast for that area is for only 6,287 persons. In the northeast area, the population total is estimated to reach 14,967. In other words, the total population foreseen north of Foothill is 21,254, according to Mr. Stewart's estimate. This does not include San Antonio heights as the area is not within the city limits.

Ultimate development in the "southwest quad" is forecast at 19,646 and the "southeast quad" total is estimated at 18,119, or a combined total of 38,765 south of Foothill.

Members of the city planning commission have under consideration a proposed master plan for land use. This plan is projected on a city map, with various colors used to indicate the various residential zones and sizes of home sites.

In a previously prepared land use map, the ultimate population total was estimated at 65,000, slightly more than the current proposal. Mr. Stewart's forecast indicates that at least 1,920 acres will be very sparsely populated.

CASA COLINA TO POMONA

New site for Casa Colina convalescent home for crippled children will be in Pomona west of Gary Ave., south of Foothill Blvd., according to Harold Stewart, administrator.

A site in Upland was favorably considered but various factors led the board of directors to decide on the Pomona property, Mr. Stewart said.

Miss Emilia Braden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Braden, 2450 Forman St., and Roger C. Vaughan were married in impressive ceremonies in the Church of the Wayfarer, Carmel by the Sea, on Nov. 27.

Only members of the immediate families of the principals and Miss Patricia Price of Covina, who was the bridesmaid, attended the double ring service. Miss Price, a sorority sister of the bride, has been her roommate since college days.

Many lighted tapers on the altar created a loveiy setting for the service which was performed by the Rev. M. R. Craig. The church soloist sang, "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marraige by her father, wore a bridal gown of white embossed faille. The ankle-length skirt gave the effect of a sheath in front. Panels arranged in box pleats fell below a pointed waistline at the back. A shaped collar formed caps at the shoulders over the long, lily point sleeves.

Her headdress was held in place by a short veil and she carried a white orchid, bouvardia and streamers on her white Bible. The latter had been the gift of her parents when she took the obligation as honored queen of Ontario Bethel Job's Daughters.

Miss Price wore a light amber peau de soie frock, on princess lines with a ballerina length skirt. Her tiny hat, shoes and bouquet of chrysanthemums were en tone.

Mr. Vaughan was attended by his brother, Stuart Vaughan, as best man.

The bride, who was born in Upland attended Upland schools, Chaffey High school and junior college and the University of California, Santa Barbara from which she was graduated in 1956. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority and is a teacher in Castro Valley.

Mr. Vaughan, a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, also teaches in Castro Valley. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Vaughan of Oakland.

Honor New Members

Festive Decorations Add To Woman's Club Tea

Thirty-two new members of the Upland Woman's club were honored at a tea in the Upland Woman's clubhouse Tuesday, with Mrs. C. P. Jacobs, first vice president and membership chairman in charge of the affair. Seven new members were unable to attend.

Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Earl Riggs, president, received the new and old members and the club's own ensemble played classical selections and Christmas carols as background music throughout the afternoon.

Strikingly beautiful decorations, arranged by Mrs. Howard Weeks, were a highlight of the pleasant afternoon. The tea table was breathtakingly lovely. A large white swan of candlewax filled with red and white carnations held the place of honor in the center surrounded by clouds of angel hair and flanked by tall red and white tapers. The floor length tablecloth of green net over taffeta was ruffled down the sides and all around were bows of white taffeta centered with sprigs of English holly. Mrs. Asger Ravn and Mrs. J. F. Sawyer presided.

The large white Christmas tree on the stage was decorated with icicles and red Christmas balls. Arrangements of red berried pyracantha were on each side and large Christmas wreath of cedar greens and small pine cones had a large red bow. This was placed in the bay window of the clubhouse. Mrs. Jacobs decorated the tree and made the wreath.

Glittery corsages presented to new members were made by Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Riggs.

Mrs. L. S. Collins, chairman of the refreshment committee, was assisted by Mmes. Seymour Lydick, Loren Robinson, Harry Cameron, O. E. Thomson and Clyde Mackall.

Those playing in the ensemble were Mrs. J. B. Swingle, director, Mrs. C. S. Stowell, Mrs. Ronald Marpert and Miss Mary Stowell.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEW MEMBERS

Upland Woman's club board met Monday morning in the Upland Woman's club house when Mrs. Earl Riggs, president, presided.

Presented for membership by Mrs. C. P. Jacobs Sr. membership chairman, and accepted were Mmes. John C. Price, E. L. McCaskey, B. C. Stevens and Joe W. Morgensen.

Mrs. G. B. Warders, house chairman and Mrs. Howard Weeks, chairman of the Christmas Tour of Homes, reported.

Named to represent the club at the Reciprocity tea in Mussoy were Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Clyde Mackall.

Others attending the meeting were Mmes. Stephen Craig, John MacFarlane, Ralph Almquist, Harold McCreight, Ralph Miller, Walter Withrow, Henry Dybsand, Asger Ravn, O. B. Thomson and H. Logan Locke.

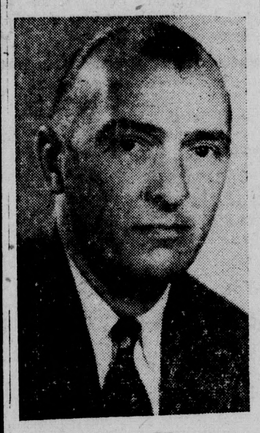

CHILDREN MAKE OPEN HOUSE DECORATIONS

Pictured admiring one of the owls made by grade four students are Bill and John Abbott, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd T. Abbott, 1677 N. Euclid Ave.; Chipper Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark, 15331 N. Euclid Ave.; and Vicki Matlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Matin, also of 1291 N. Euclid Ave. The owls will be perched on an owl tree. Miss Betty Dike is art instructor.

Casa Colina Appeal Aided

As the result of the cooperation and help from Uplanders, more than 200,000 letters have been mailed in behalf of the Casa Colina convalescent and rehabilitation center for crippled children. A minimum of $80,000 is being sought for operational expense to continue its present program.

Harry D. Stewart, administrator, who resides in Upland, explained that Casa Colina conducts only one such fund raising campaign yearly. He said the center is dependent upon public support for 60 per cent of its annual operating capital. More than 50 people from Upland and Ontario aided in mailing the letters. Assisting also were members of the Welcome Wagon of the Upland Newcomers club of which Mrs. Robt. Perry is president.

The letters are appealing for financial aid.

Father Gabriel Richard, a Michigan priest, was the only priest in history to serve in U. S. Congress. He was elected in the Michigan Territory in 1823.

California Setting For Mrs. Nielsen's New Book

Mrs. Jean Nielsen of Cucamonga, successful author of novels for teenagers, has returned from a trip to New York where she conferred with her agent and her publishers, Funk and Wagnall.

Mrs. Nielsen said she had a wonderful time in New York city and was entertained royally. She was commissioned to write a novel about California with an orange grove setting, for which she has a contract, and on the advice of her agent, she is planning another type of novel.

On the way home, which she reached in time for Thanksgiving with her husband and two children here, she stopped in Seattle and in Portland, Ore.

City Officials To Decide New Euclid Tree

Up for decision soon by the Upland city officials and residents will be the kind of trees to be replanted on the Euclid Ave. parkway.

Age, windstorms and constant watering have taken their toll of the historic pepper trees. While many of the 60-year old trees still remain, the problem of replanting is becoming more acute.

"While the problem of selecting a new kind of a tree is not imminent, decision must be reached sometime before any additional plantings are made," City Manager Elwin Alder said yesterday. Discussion of the tree problem may come before the city councilmen tonight or at future meetings.

Inspectors of the county agricultural department and other interested persons have agreed that another variety other than pepper must be selected, Mr. Alder said. Peppers cannot withstand the constant watering that occurs to maintain the green lawn parkway.

The heavy wind storm recently left many of the peppers twisted and badly multilated.

"Only a few trees are able to take plenty of water but the best variety to meet the local situation is yet to be selected," Mr. Alder said. He expressed the belief that the city councilmen would be pleased to hear from the general public or tree authorities on suggestions as to varieties.

Annual Y-Men's Tree Sale Set For Dec. 12

The annual Christmas tree sale of the Ontario-Upland Y Men's club will start Thursday, Dec. 12. The trees will be on sale at the YMCA lot, 215 West "C" St., Ontario. The money from the sale of the trees will be used for the benefit of area youth.

Other projects have been sponsoring youth in the soapbox derby, and presenting a "Youth-of-the-Month" award to outstanding youth in the communities of Upland and Ontario. Paul Clarke is president of the club, and Fred Schultz is in charge of the Christmas tree sale.

Kaiser Steel Corporation's board of directors has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 36½ cents per share on the preferred stock payable on Dec. 31, 1957, to stockholders of record at the close of business on Dec. 13, 1957.

DELUXE! LOW PRICE
WESTINGHOUSE LAUNDROMAT
REVOLVING AGITATOR THAT PASSES THE SAND TEST!

The test: On "live" TV, 2 cups of sand representing heavy soil are dumped on towels in three well-known center-post agitator washers and in a Revolving Agitator Laundromat. After all complete their cycles, center-post machines leave towels and washers in a sandy mess. Laundromat leaves not a grain of sand in towels or washer.

HERE'S WHY THE LAUNDROMAT IS BEST...

Washes Cleaner! There's no old-fashioned center-post. Clothes go inside Revolving Agitator which lifts and plunges them 50 times a minute.

Rinses Better! Revolving Agitator lifts clothes while soil and dirty water drain away from them. Center-post machines strain it all back through them.

Cleans Itself! Because of its patented design, the Laundromat cleans clothes, then cleans itself—automatically! All sand, scum, lint go down the drain.

Suesanne Ostrom Weds George Smith Ticknor

Miss Suesanne H. Ostrom, 173-C 13th Ave., and Geo. Smith Ticknor, 1040 Terrace Dr., were married, Nov. 27, 7:30 p.m., in First Christian church, Ontario, the double ring ceremony being performed by Paul B. Kennedy, minister of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner W. Ostrom Sr., of Milwaukie, Ore. and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Rose C. Ticknor of Seattle, Wash.

Candelabra, banked by palms and baskets of pastel and white chrysanthemums formed the setting for the ceremony when the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress combining white lace and taffeta. The full floor-length skirt of taffeta swept to a chapel train and the long sleeved lace bodice was encrusted with pearls matching those in the coronet which held her fingertip veil of tulle. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Wm. S. Smith of Palo Alto, the matron of honor, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Joseph M. Smith, Pomona and Miss Janelle Epperson of Upland wore identical ballerina length princess frocks of Elizabeth blue satin. They carried nosegays of pink and white carnations and wore matching floral headpieces.

Ringbearers Johnny Long and Bobby Yetter carried white satin pillows made by the bride's mother.

Arthur D. Daniel of Sacramento was the best man and the ushers were the Rev. David T. Kagiwada of Pasadena; Keith T. Larrick Jr., Harlan Gray and Gary Balding, all of Ontario.

Mrs. W. Campbell Nelson of Ontario was the organist and also accompanied the Rev. Kay Kokubun of Los Angeles, who sang, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee." and "The Lord's Prayer."

Marilyn Bradford, the flower girl, in blue, carried a basket of pink flowers.

In late afternoon, previous to the wedding, a buffet turkey dinner was served at the Wm. C. McCombs residence to 25 family members and the wedding party.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall when a four tier white cake, with pink rose decorations and a mounting of bells and lily of the valley was served.

Those pouring were Mmes. Geo. Yetter, G. R. Lewis, Luther Frank, Leone House and Dean Bradford. Assisting as hostesses were Misses Nancy Draper, Florence Underwood, Frankie Felsh, May Johnson, Isabel McCullough and Judy Thomas.

For the honeymoon, at mountain resorts, the bride changed to a brown dress with black satin trim.

The bridegroom is the associate minister of First Christian church, Ontario. A graduate of the University of Washington he was also graduated from Chapman college, Orange.

Mrs. Ticknor is a field director of the Chaffey Girl Scout council. She is a graduate of Oregon State college and is a member of Sigma Kappa national sorority.

Out of state guests at the wedding included the bride's parents and her brother, Root. Ostrom, all of Milwaukie and the groom's mother.

The young couple returned from their honeymoon on Tuesday and are making their home in Upland.

Light Block-Square Tableau Of Christmas Story Dec. 16

People from miles around will be driving to Upland once again, and many for the first time, during the Christmas season. The big attraction will be Upland's unique outdoor Christmas displays, featuring the block square "Christmas Story". Other attractions will be Candy Cane Lane on N. Second Ave., 11th St. to Foothill Blvd., and Christmas Tree Lane, with the white trees and multi-colored lights lining Euclid Ave. parkway south from Foothill Blvd. through Upland and Ontario.

Lighted Dec. 16 — 31

For the sixth consecutive year, "The Christmas Story", will be presented, Dec. 16-31, by the neighbors within the block bounded by Arrow Hwy., Sixth Ave., "F" St. and Campus Ave. The tableau of Christ's birth is told each year by the neighbors, with their cut-out and painted figures and scenery to duplicate the Holy Land. Motorists begin the tour around the block at the corner of Arrow Hwy. and Campus Ave., proceeding west on Arrow, thence north on Sixth, thence east on F, and south on Campus, with each home telling part of the story leading up to the Nativity.

No additions are being made to the scenes this year, for the first time, according to Warren W. Wilken, 574 Sixth Ave., local contractor and chairman of the neighborhood this year. Mr. Wilken succeeded Harry Wright as display chairman, after the latter had served two years, and chairman for the original two presentations was Darwin Brest, creator of the neighborhood project with his daughter, Judy, now Mrs. Garland P. Thacker of Cucamonga. Mr. Brest now resides in Montecito.

Three New Families

The displays will be erected Dec. 14 and 15, with the lights to go on for the first time Monday evening, Dec. 16, and will remain lighted each night through Dec. 31.

Three new families are participating in the project this year, having moved into the block during the year. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fox of 554 N. Sixth Ave. replace the M. G. Apel family; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eckman of 533 N. Campus Ave., replacing the late Miss Annette Leeke, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Kirby, new residents at 551 N. Campus Ave., former home of Mrs. Pearl E. Snyder, now of Stockton.

Families to continue participation in the tableau presentation are the following:

R. Ferguson, F. H. Christensen, Ruth Kinnison, Elmer Coleman, A. E. French, Homer Greear, A. P. Storm, A. W. Zimmerman, James Rossi, Mrs. A. Schneider, Florence Armstrong, Warren Wilken, Mrs. Gladys Winn, Mrs. Elizabeth Hough, R. Tathwell, Mrs. Oscar Whitney, J. J. Zets, Mrs. Emma Ruth, Mrs. L. L. Harms, Mrs. Guy Hadley, Harry Wright, A. Longs Return From Visit To Andean Indian Mission

Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Long and Betty Marie, 1337 N. Euclid Ave., have returned from a two week's visit with Dr. and Mrs. Donald Dilworth in Ecuador, where Dr. Dilworth, who attended Chaffey Junior college and formerly lived in Hemet, is a medical missionary at a station in the Andes.

Flying to Quito the Long's were met by the Dilworths who took them to the 11,000 foot high station in a jeep, over cobblestone roads. The station is about 150 miles from Quito and the trip took five hours, Mrs. Long reported.

"I'll never be able to think of missionaries without it all coming back," she said. "I was most struck by the extreme poverty of the people who are among the last survivors of the Incan race. They are short people and their diet consists of a gruel made of potatoes and barley. They eat twice a day."

She said they live in mud houses and they have a few chickens and pigs, which also have the run of the houses. The pigs appeared better nourished than the people, she stated.

Betty Marie, who is 10, was greatly distressed by the condition under which the people lived. Dr. Long, however, ate some of the Indian food and spent a night in an Indian house.

The land the Indians have is used mostly to sustain their sheep. Each family tries to have a sheep for each member and the wool from the sheep is spun on hand spindles and woven on looms after it has been dyed in fine colors with natural dyes.

Dr. Dilworth is endeavoring to build a hospital at the station and it is laborious work as all the bricks must be made by hand on the location. He has the building shoulder-high. The Indians are being taught to read and write and Mrs. Dilworth is busy teaching them. The three Dilworth children are at school in Quito.

While there the Longs visited other mission stations of which there are four or five within a radius of 75 miles. These missions are maintained by the Gospel Missionary Union in Kansas City.

Doctors Long and Dilworth became friends about 15 years ago when both were attending the Los Angeles Osteopathic collge.

The interest on the Federal public debt exceeded a billion dollars per year for the first time in 1940.

Benjamin Franklin played the harmonica, violin, guitar and harp. He also composed many lyrics for popular songs.

Cucamonga Woman's Club To Hear Gospelaires

Other members of the musical group, who will be heard in a Christmas program are June List, violinist; Margery Keith, violinist; Alice Gillespie, pianist, and Vvoly Miracle, soprano soloist.

During the program Mr. Keith will create a drawing, "The Holy Night".

G. A. Brest Layman Of Month

Kiwanians Honor Church Stonemason

Layman of the Month honors for November were recently accorded G. A. Brest, 77, a layman of First Presbyterian church of Upland, by Upland Kiwanis club at a luncheon meeting in the Stuft Shirt restaurant.

A stone mason in this area for more than 50 years, Mr. Brest is now retired but returned to the job when his church, First Presbyterian, chose to use a rock veneer in the exterior decoration of the new sanctuary. Mr. Brest has only recently completed the tremendous task of laying the carefully selected San Antonio canyon rock on the Euclid frontage of the new church in pillars and smaller wall areas in other locations about the edifice.

Monumental Work

"We believe he has done a work which will be a monument of art and strength for generations to come," said his minister, the Rev. Trusten A. Hart. The Presbyterian pastor also cited Bethel Congregational church of Ontario, built of stone about 45 years ago, as another monument to the craftsmanship of Mr. Brest, as well as many homes, curbs, fireplaces and other rock structures of this community. church of Ontario, built of stone about 45 years ago, as another monument to the craftsmanship of Mr. Brest, as well as many homes, curbs, fireplaces and other rock structures of this community.

After completing the church stonework last week, Mr. Brest left for Mendocino, where he is visiting at the home of his son Darwin, and working on a new home being built there for the Bert Nichols family of Ontario. During the stone laying projects at the church last spring and summer, Mr. Brest spent considerable time at Mendocino enjoying his favorite pastime, fishing.

Pennsylvania Native

A native of Pennsylvania, he came with his family to Pomona as a small boy. He and Mrs. Brest are parents of two children, Highway Patrolman Darwin Brest, formerly of Upland, and the late Mrs. Margaret Dundas. He has five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The grandchildren are Mrs. Edgar Donaldson of Ontario, Mrs. Garland P. Thacker of Cucamonga, Susan, Stephen and Geoffrey Dundas of Claremont. The great-grandchildren are Rebecca and Mary Ellen Donaldson, Robt. Erin Kay and Michael Thacker.

Candy Cane Lane Adds Festive Holiday Air Second Season

Candy Cane Lane will add to the festive atmosphere of the holidays in Upland for the second consecutive year, with residents of N. Second Ave., from 11th St. to Foothill Blvd., to erect their gigantic candy canes Dec. 15.

Each lawn on the street will be enhanced by one of the red and white striped "candy" canes, created last year by the men of the neighborhood for the annual display.

The yule project began with a neighborhood meeting, called by Mr. and Mrs. Allen P. McGowan Jr. in their home, 914 N. Second Ave. The neighbors discussed a possible neighborhood project and decided on Candy Cane Lane. Metal stove pipes painted white and wrapped with strips of red plastic ribbon were utilized to create the striking lawn decorations, which are floodlighted at night.

Several of the homes had other decorations last year, and most of them had colored holiday lights strung through shrubbery. The McGowans displayed their mechanical snow man, and the Jas. C. Stamms, Jr. painted colorful pixies on plywood cutouts to add to their home decorations. The pixies were so popular that they are being added this year at the McGowan and Jarvis J. Leman homes, and possibly others.

Add Decorations

The Rev. Trusten A. Hart has just completed a 4x8 foot Christmas greeting card to add to the candy cane at the Hart home. While the candy canes alone are strikingly effective, it now appears they are but the basis of a more elaborate street of yule decorations, with residents adding something to their yards and homes each year. Added to Upland's earlier and better known "Christmas Story," told by cutouts on the lawns of homes of a square block, and Euclid Avenue's "Christmas Tree Lane", Candy Cane Lane is adding to Upland's area fame for uniquely beautiful holiday decorations.

The 29 families participating in the neighborhood yule project are Mrs. Fern Reisner and sons, Miss Julia Rugg, Dr. and Mrs. James Beggs, the Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Hart, Mrs. Wm. McGee, the Messrs. and Mmes. D. D. Pulver, J. C. Thompson, S. V. Duklewski, J. J. Leman, Geo. Gibson, W. B. Keirn, A. T. McGowan Jr., E. O. Bowden, Claude Moore, Robt. Ring, Dale Miller, Merle W. Rash, Arthur Turner, Chas. Eppler, O. E. Hirschler, Harold Wise, Roy A. Ray, Everett C. Carter, H. J. Reading, J. R. Skinner, Floyd W. Jones, J. C. Stamm Jr., S. L. Urwin and Walter I. Withrow.

Miss Joy Adams, Evangelist In Farewell At Evangel Temple

Miss Joy Adams, who with her brother and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Jimmie Adams, was instrumental in the establishment of Evangel Temple, in Upland will speak during a morning worship service in the temple, Sunday, 9:45 o'clock.

Miss Adams, who is an evangelist, will leave for Africa on the S.S. Reuben Tipton, sailing from New Orleans, Dec. 16. She leaves California on Dec. 9. Her parents are the Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Adams of Norco, formerly of Upland.

While in Africa Miss Adams will be in charge of a mission school for girls and a clinic in Vendaland, South Africa.

Members of the congregation of the Upland temple will honor Miss Adams at a chicken dinner, in the lower auditorium of the church, Sunday morning following the worship service. All friends are invited.

MISS ADAMS IN NATIVE DRESS

Miss Adams previously spent five years in the mission district in Africa to which she is returning. She was the youngest missionary among the Assemblies of God workers in the foreign mission field at that time. She is also a licensed airplane pilot and will use a plane at the mission base for some trips throughout the field, she said.

IT WAS SAID: "The object of punishment is prevention from evil; it never can be made impulsive to good."

BIBLE QUOTATION: "Let my heart be sound in thy statues; that I be not ashamed." Psalms 119:80.

Hearing Dec. 19 In Near Fatal Shooting

Reported improving in County hospital, San Bernardino, is Melvin Henry Horst, 33-year-old Pomonan, who narrowly escaped death early Sunday morning when he was shot by Frank Demont Prouty, 76, of 5189 Foothill Blvd., Upland, while banging on the latter's front door.

Now held in county jail on charges with "attack with a deadly weapon", with a hearing in Upland Justice court set for Dec. 19, the elderly Prouty has maintained the story he first told Sheriff's Det. Lesley Jones, investigating officer from the West End sub-station, that he fired the .45 calibre pistor through the door because he feared for his life.

He has stated that a stranger threatened his life two months ago, and that he obtained the automatic pistol only recently because of this. When aroused from sleep at 2:30 a.m. Sunday, by someone pounding on his door, he told Det. Jones he seized the pistol and fired one shot through the wood paneling.

The shot was good enough for the slug to strike Mr. Horst's neck, course up through his jaw and sinus cavities and emerge under an eye, leaving him in critical condition.

The sub-station report reveals that the shooting victim had been at a cafe on Central Ave., south of Foothill, leaving the cafe only 30 minutes before the near-fatal shooting. Prouty was returned to Upland city jail for further interrogation Tuesday, but stuck to his original story and was returned to San Bernardino.

Arturo Godoy was defeated by Joe Louis twice in the same year, February 9th and June 20th, 1940.

Bill Ryan Home, Receives Award

A day after his release from San Antonio Community hospital, where he has been in traction for two weeks, Bill Ryan received his trophy as the "most outstanding backfield" player of the Upland High school "C" team during the '57 season. Ryan suffered a severe arm fracture in a late season game and missed the final game and the following banquet. He is now wearing a torso cast and suspended arm cast. Coach Bill Wolfe (right above) made the presentation at the Ryan home last week. —Upland News Staff Photo

Kiwanians See "The 500 Mile" Movie On Race

A color movie, "The 500 Mile", telling the story of the Indianapolis Speedway race classic, was shown to Upland Kiwanis club Tuesday at the Stuft Shirt restaurant, by Bill Taylor, racing representative of General Petroleum Corp., who was accompanied by Hal Hargrave, Ontario area Mobilgas distributor. Les Standlea was program chairman.

During the meeting, Kiwanis perfect attendance pins were presented by W. W. Woodward to Dr. Lawrence Parker, three years; Les Standlea, two years, and Edwin Wickstrom, one year.

Mr. Taylor, a Claremont resident, was a race car driver for 14 years and now attends racing events over the nation for his company.

The Earth is about 3,000,000 miles closer to the Sun in January than it is in July.

EDDIE COLLINS

The 1958 football season should be a big year for Eddie Collins, the Highlander halfback who came up from the B's this season to add sparkle to the Upland High school backfield and tally a season average of six yards per carry with the pigskin. Eddie, who received a second string berth on the Tri-County league selections, is a junior and prospects of his return to the green and white grid uniform next fall give Coach Jerry Bell something to smile about.

Highlander Band Wins

Upland High school's marching band onday night took first place trophy and the $100 cash award in the Pomona Christmas parade, competing with seven other high school bands.

Elbert Warren, director, and Walt Wood, drum major, had hoped for a second place in the parade but proved their organization is even better than it's ego. On Saturday, the band placed fourth in its division at the All-Western Band review in Long Beach, and in its first parade of the season, the West Arcadia Band review, claimed the third place trophy and cash prize.

Wins Midget A

Chuck Journey was the main event winner at the Upland Quarter Racing Assn. midget races in Upland Memorial park, Sunday. A Semi-main winner was Gene Florian. Jim Williams won the B main. Paul Owens won the B Semi-main.

The A trophy dash was won by Deane Lowe and Bobbie Olivero made fast time, during qualifying rounds.

Tony Grasso made fast time and the B trophy winner was Dick Crandall.

A heats were won by Gary Warfel, Ricky Goudy, and Richard Shoji and B heat winners were Bobbie Crandall, Marvin Best, Jim Rucker and Tony Cesani.

Murder, Suicide

had talked to them both on the telephone the night before and they both were, she said, in good spirits.

Previously, she had been concerned about her brother, following the death of his first wife and her sister-in-law in a traffic accident in Indio last May 5. She did not believe he had ever recovered from her death as he insisted on keeping all her things in the home.

Wed Housekeeper

The second wife had joined him as a housekeeper late in July or early Aug., Mrs. Schubert said. They appeared very congenial and their mutual interests led to their marriage.

Mrs. Schubert and her brother were the oldest of 14 children, born in New Mexico. She said he had a particularly gentle disposition and had never been a quarrelsome man. Recently he became frantic when they received word of the serious illness of his mother and he had said he wouldn't care to live if his mother died.

First Wive's Roses

A man who didn't drink he spent a good deal of time in his home and was upset after the recent storm when the rose bushes, planted by his first wife, were badly damaged.

"He wanted to keep the roses as his wife left them," a neighbor, Mrs. Rose Rupert, reported. She said she had been in the home twice since the recent marriage and the couple seemed very happy, but Mr. Holliday had taken her out with pride to see the rose garden.

Difficulty over money was revealed as a possible source of trouble, resulting in the tragedy, Mrs. Schubert learned from Deputy Coroner Coger, who permitted her to read a letter her brother had written to her before his death. She said he wrote he had nothing to live for and accused his second wife of taking his money.

His sister said that up until a month ago she had been keeping money for him, amounting to about $1000, at his request, because he worked at night. She had insisted on him taking the money and suggested that he and his wife bank it. She said she was told by the deputy coroner that a safety deposit box in Ontario is in Mrs. Holliday's name.

"It was just a few hundred dollars," she sobbed. "To think it could cause this trouble."

In his note the dead man left all his possessions to his sister, Myrtle, who is Mrs. Schubert, and his mother and father.

The dead woman leaves one son, James Doe, of Birmingham, Mich.

The late Mr. Holliday had no children. Two sons of his first wife, died as she did, in a traffic accident.

The late Dick Holliday was employed in the electric welding department of the Kaiser Steel plant in Fontana.

Burials For Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Wilse H. Holliday of Mountainair, N. M., arrived early in the week to make arrangements for shipment of their son's remains to his native state, where burial will be held in Mountainair.

The body of Mrs. Holliday is being shipped to North Branch, Mich., for burial.

Both bodies were released by the coroner's office Tuesday, when a statement was issued to the effect that Mrs. Holliday had apparently died by her husband's hand at approximately 6 a.m. Saturday, and that Mr. Holliday after phoning his sister, had taken his own life. The conclusion was that there had been violent disagreement on financial and marital matters.

Clinic Is Due

O-Kay Plywood Co., will hold a special Weldwood Home-Improvement clinic Friday, 7:30 P.M., at 1424 W. Holt Blvd., Ontario, to show home owners how to do the best possible remodeling and construction. According to Jas. McComb, of Upland, owner, the meeting will emphasize converting waste space into added living area for a growing family.

A step-by-step explanation of room layout and construction will start the clinic, followed by a demonstration of materials, tools and techniques.

Mrs. Kay McComb and employees of the O-Kay Plywood will show a motion picture and answer any questions from the audience.

TRAINER KEEPS ATHLETES IN SHAPE

Ken Brooks, athletic trainer at Upland High school, applies tape to the sprained ankle of Ken Hotard, one of numerous minor injuries the trainer cares for in the training room of the school gymnasium each day. With many yards of gauze bandaging and tape, a whirl-pool bath, a couple of heat lamps, and other supplies, Mr. Brooks keeps watch on the physical fitness of all youths engaged in athletics. He is also on hand at athletic events to treat Upland players for any injury, and also aids in preventative measures, especially where a player has a previous injury. —Upland News Staff Photo

Leading the way for the band is the school Highlander mascot, Jo Rosendo, in her Highland kilts, followed by the school banner carried by Jan Swihart and Pat Asbill. Next are the flag twirlers, and in the center can be seen the plumed busby of Drum Major Walt Wood. He is flanked by the majorettes and then comes the smart instrumentalists. College, Academy Choirs Sing

Christmas Choral Concert Tuesday Evening In Chapel

Upland college Motet choir of 22 voices under the direction of Professor H. Royce Saltzman will present its third annual Christmas choral concert Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, 8 p.m., in the college chapel, San Antonio Ave. and West Arrow Highway.

Music lovers of the area will appreciate the unique and different format of the choral concert. The choir will sing an arrangement for choir, brass quartet, and continuo entitled, "Jauchzet dem Herrn," a 17th-Century motet sung in German and written by Johann Pachelbel.

A highlight of the evening program will feature a round table of carols with the group singing Christmas music from England, Italy, Wales, Bohemia, America and other countries. In this scene the tables in a somewhat informal choir will be seated around fashion with brief explanations given concerning some of the carols.

The Upland Academy choir, with 35 voices under the direction of Professor William K. Haldeman, will also be spotlighted when they sing, "Thou Must Leave Thy Lowly Dwelling," a chorus from "Childhood of Christ," Opus 25

Upland High Science, Math Depts. Strong

A king-size slide rule is often needed to teach the large mathematics classes at Upland high school. Dale Stevens, head of the mathematics department, reports that 61% of all students are enrolled in mathematics classes. Discussing the slide rule are, from left, Harlan Gray, Instructor Stevens, C. B. Cox and Dave Armstrong.

Vick, Stevens, Say Enrollment, Interest High

Science and mathematics are strong departments at Upland high school with high enrollment and lively interest on the part of students. Equipment is excellent, according to Roy Vick, chairman of the Science department, and Dale Stevens, chairman of the mathematics department. Since this is the first year when four grades have been organized at Upland high school, the chairmen expect higher enrollment in their departments next year.

Forty-five per cent of the student body is registered in a science course, according to Chairman Vick. Approximately four-fifths of this number are in college preparatory courses.

Classes Offered

Science classes include the following, with sections: 10th year— Science Survey (5 sections) and Biology (4); 11th year— Chemistry (4 sections) and Physiology (2); 12th year — Physics (2). Total registration is 517. The Chairman indicates that 137 in the chemistry classes are practically all in a college prepartory program. The two physiology sections of 45 are also junior and senior college preparatory students.

Chairman Stevens shows that 61 per cent of the Upland high student body is now registered in a mathematics class. This is besides those who have had 1, 2, or 3 years of mathematics before and are not registered this year. Forty-one per cent of the student body is in college preparatory mathematics. Two and one-half times as many boys as girls take four years of mathematics.

Math Enrollments

Enrollments in mathematics include the following: Arithmetic (regular and applied) nine sections, 235; first-year Algebra, eight sections. 260; Plane Geometry, six sections, 175; Advanced Algebra, four sections, 109; Trigonometry and Solid Geometry, one section, 28; Senior Mathematics, one section, 33.

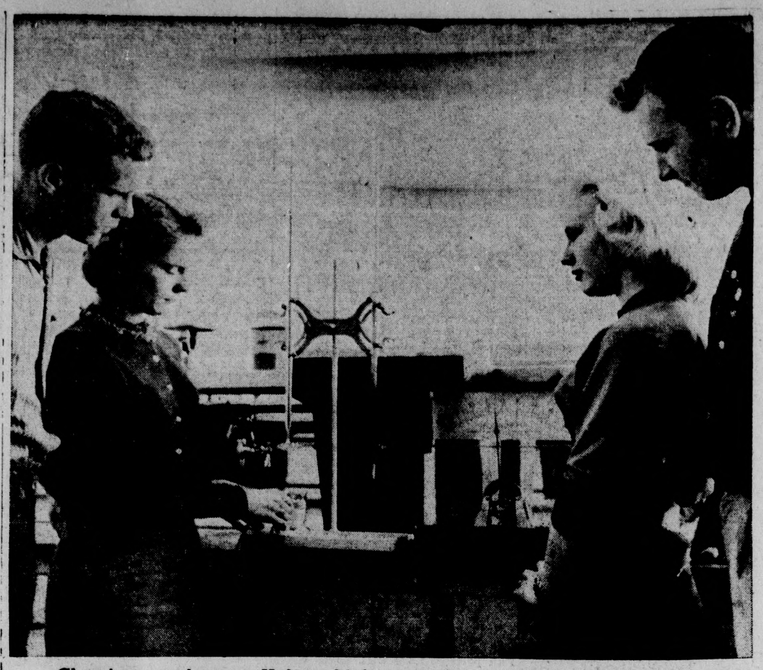

Field days throughout Southern California attract the interest of many students from each group. At the Occidental college mathematics field day last year, Upland high, with no seniors at the time, stood second in the competition as a school with individuals placed in all sections. Upland students will enter the Field day again on March 1, 1958.

Attend Field Days

Science students with Alan L. Bescoby, instructor in the Science department, took part in the California Institute of Technology field day on Dec. 7. A group also attended the Pomona college open science day earlier this fall. The science department also had a representation at the Redlands university science day this fall.

Science students also took part last year in the Inland Science fair as Instructor Bescoby is a director of the Inland Science fair Assn. Inc. The Mathematics and Science club with student chemists had a field trip this fall to the Dow Chemical plant.

The Vectors, physical science and mathematics club, is sponsored by Chairman Stevens. The Science club is sponsored by Instructor Bescoby.

Oasis Parents, Adults Form Booster Group

A number of interested parents and adults attended a meeting Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Clark Green, 1552 N. Oakland, Ontario, for the purpose of formulating a group of boosters is to assist Oasis", Chaffey District Youth center.

Purpose of establishing a group of boosters is toassist the young people in informing the residents of this area as to the needs for this center, the accomplishments of the youth organization to date, the plans for the future, and to promote general interest throughout the communities of the Chaffey district.

Phil Mehas of the student membership committee announced the membership drive currently under way, is gathering momentum in both schools and there is a tremendous interest among the students of Chaffey and Upland high schools.

It was explained how the door-to-door financial drive, set for the first week in January, is being organized by block captains and workers. It was also announced that a C.P.A., Robt. Thrall of Upland, is donating his time to assist with the setting up of all accounting books.

Bob Estabrook, who presided, closed the meeting with a question and answer period. It was announced also, that anyone throughout the area desiring further information pertaining to the Oasis, should call YUkon 2-6658 or YUkon 2-2789.

known, critical persons see the situation isn't as bad as they thought.

DEC. 10

Deadline for payment of the first installment of the biggest tax bill you have ever faced is due next Tuesday.

A favorite job of everyone recently has been that of figuring out why your tax bill increased and in thinking your assessment is unjust. This and all communities in the county are growing and it is natural to believe the growth should pay its way. Somehow, it doesn't increase faster than income due to the fact that expenses So, the governmental agencies must increase the cost of services and governmental management.

The time to analyze the situation is not so much when you get the tax bill but when you and your neighbors ask the city, the county and the school districts for the best of everything.

Personally, we are very chagrined at the Upland city tax rate — among the highest in the county while only a short time ago, it was among the lowest. Locally, we might see what can be done about the situation — and to decide what services we want eliminated.

Championship Golf Play At Red Hill

Annual Red Hill Country club golf championship tourney is now well under way, with the second match of the championship flight to be completed by Sunday. Matched in this play are Tom Pinckley with Gil Carter, Sam Knox and Bob Allen. In the lower bracket of the championship flight, 15-year-old Dick Ferry, last year's junior champion and consistently top ranking golfer, is matched with Gyle Tague.

Gift Buyers Turning To Local Stores

Upland retail stores are today serving an unprecedented throng of Christmas shoppers.

Following the highly successful Christmas "opening" Friday night, gift-minded buyers from all parts of the foothill area have flocked to local stores for choice selections of a wide variety of merchandise. Indications point to the current shopping season as being by far the best in history.

"You Can Buy It In Upland" is an assurance offered by Upland stores to all residents in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga, Etiwanda and the northern part of Ontario. Larger displays of merchandise are noted in most of the retail stores and united efforts are being made to attract more local customers.

Sometime during next year the additional off-street parking lots will be available but the need for them now is evident as cars are packed into the downtown district and in the Shopping Bag commercial center.

GRADE CROSSING DECISION SOON

No public hearing will be held on the question of this city's application for a Second Ave. grade crossing over the Santa Fe right-of-way.

The application, now being "processed" in the commission's Los Angeles office, may be up to the point of decision soon, according to reports yesterday to The Upland News. An attache in the office of Senior Engineer Howard Christensen said it had been determined that no public hearing would be held. When the commissioners convene for a meeting in Los Angeles the application and other pertinent data will be presented.

MRS. HARRY HARGRAVE stops to observe the flames devouring materials for a new pre-fabricated home her mother, Mrs. Nellie Elliott, was erecting on the north portion of the Elliott-Hargrave farm properties. The home materials were burned along with five unoccupied cabins in the Friday brush fire northeast of Alta Loma.

Fire Sweeps 80 Acres Brush, Burns Six Cabins In Foothills

By JOEL BAUGH

For more than an hour Friday afternoon, a wind whipped brush fire in the unoccupied foothills north of Highland Ave. and between the communities of Alta Loma and Etiwanda, threatened to reach uncontrollable heights as it jumped with the blustery wind over the brush land and once crossed Highland Ave.

Alta Loma Volunteer Fire Dept. and U. S. Forest Service fire fighters and equipment were on the scene, battling the flames which started about 2 p.m. near the site for the new Chaffey college campus and swept southward to Highland Ave., blackening 80 acres.

Six Cabins Burned

Two unoccupied cabins on the farm property of Mrs. Nellie V. Elliott, plus the materials on the site for erection of a pre-fab home, were burned as the fire swept from the unoccupied brush land into the farmyard area of Mrs. Elliott's property and that of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hargrave, who lost three small unoccupied cabins in the fire. Ten and additional farm buildings were saved by the firemen, as well as the homes occupied by the Hargraves, Mrs. Elliott, the Frank Stewarts and Edna Wilson, who evacuated their homes before the blaze was controlled about 4 p.m.

The gale-like wind dropped fire into the cluster of farm homes several times, but each time they were discovered in time and extinguished. Alta Loma Fire Chief C. E. Hogancamp once had to enter a small wooden shed adjacent to the Hargrave home to extinguish a fire in a pile of clothing.

Windbreak Ignited

A windbreak between the Hargrave—Elliott properties and a grove to the west was threatened when the fire moved down the piles of dry leaves and dry brush which the wind had accumulated along the line of trees and fencing.

The fire jumped Highland Ave. to race down a wash area — heavy in brush — which cuts through a Garrett & Co. vineyard. Fortunately, the vineyards immediately south of Highland in the fire area are newly planted, with no foliage and aided greatly in stemming the blaze.

Possible Origins

The Forestry service said the fire's origin was not known but Mrs. Hargrave said it was possible the blaze started from smouldering fire left by a Tuesday controlled burn of the Chaffey college site, northwest of the fire area. The Forest service had kept a daily vigil on the burned off area, and reported no sign of remaining fire Thursday morning.

Chief Hogancamp said this was only one of two possible origins of the blaze. "We found a few hot spots in the area of the Tuesday fire", he said, "although the Friday blaze started 150 yards south of the first burn. There were hunters in the area Friday morning, and it is also possible that they are responsible for the fire."

BROWNIE PLAY DAY

Foothill District Brownies of the Chaffey Council of Girl Scouts will meet for their annual Play Day this Saturday, in Upland Memorial park. Hours will be from 1130 a.m. to 2 p.m. After a sack lunch, the girls will join in games and songs.

SUPERVISOR DAN MIKESELL surveys the blackened brushland from the farm yard of the Harry Hargrave property, with fire fighters still at work on the smouldering brush and wood piles in the farm yard. The Friday afternoon fire gutted 80 acres of underbrush and trees.

LAST STAND — Fire fighters rushed to this cluster of eucalyptus trees Friday afternoon to squelch the last of the flames which burned about 80 acres of brush. As the last flames about the Elliott-Hargrave farm properties were extinquished, the final blaze hit this timbered area immediately north of Highland Ave. and east of the group of farm houses.

M-1 Zoning For Cucamonga

An application of Frank Coco for rezoning from A-1 to M-1 for Cucamonga property will be heard by the San Bernardino county planning commission Thursday, Dec. 12, 1f a.m.

Mr. Coco has applied for a zone change for the property located on the north side of Ninth St., approximately 500 feet west of Vineyard Ave., in the west Cucamonga area.

No immediate development for the property is anticipated, Mr. Coco told The Upland News, but he desires to have it rezoned M-1 for eventual development, in line with M-1 zoning for other property in the same area.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Forsythe and son Bobby moved from Upland on Saturday, returning to Phoenix, Ariz., their former home. The couple had lived on Sycamore Ct. the past year.

Linda Jensen Heads Group

Susie Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jensen, 1133 N. 13th Ave., won an overwhelming majority in the election last week for student council president of Upland Elementary school. Jeff Klekner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Klekner, 1059 E. Arrow Hwy. was the choice for vice president.

Voting by students of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades was carried on with an air of efficiency by Judy Thompson, as judge, Linda Joe Lamphear, clerk and Allen Ennis, assistant to the judge.

Balloting carried on through the morning and combined a lesson in civics with practice in voting as it is done in a city election. Actually city voting booths were used, creating an atmosphere of reality while at the same time ensuring secrecy of the ballot.

Teacher Oliver Sodergerg, who is the sponsor, reported there were six spoiled ballots among the 600 cast, which he said is about what the adult average spoilage would be!

All candidates were from the sixth grade. The president and the vice-president will head the council which will be complete when all classrooms in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades elect two representatives in the near future.

Editor:

I was quite surprised to read the report carried in your paper last week covering the appearance of the Florence Festival Orchestra in Chaffey auditorium, same being the second presentation of the current season's offerings.

The comment regarding the orchestra's lack of brilliance seems entirely unfounded, unless one is looking for the bombastic style of a brass band on parade.

As for the statement music lovers did not receive a brilliant performance, I can only say that the consensus among the professional musicians of my acquaintance, who were in attendance, was that it was an unusually brilliant concert. This was attested to by an overwhelming ovation by the entire audience.

After having worked hard for several years to bring high class artistic entertainment to our community, along with many other residents who did likewise, I cannot help but feel that an appraisal such as appeared in our publication is not only unjust but discouraging to the committee.

James McVickers Head Church Mariner Group

Sierra Vista PTA Hears W. W. Fisher

Curisoity may have killed the cat but it is a necessary element for learning, members of the Sierra Vista Parent-Teacher Assn. heard in a talk by Walter W. Fisher at a meeting in the school house last week.

Mr. Fisher pointed out that wanting to know is as an important element as the knowing. He stressed the need in this country, particularly in this era of "Sputniks" of making "students" of today's children. The parental role is highly important, the speaker said, since the children are in school only nine per cent of a year's time.

Mrs. J. W. Masters announced that toys are needed at the Santa Claus, Inc. workshop.

Mrs. Marilyn C. Fehr's combination first and second grade rooms won the first tree to be given to the school by the PTA group for the largest percentage of parent and teacher attendance at the meeting.

Mrs. Gerald O'Steen president, notified parents to send donations of canned goods for the Christmas baskets during the week of Thanksgiving vacation.

Pumpkin pie and coffee were served by fifth grade room mothers, Mrs. Arthur Pruitt, Mrs. Jean B. Lafond and Mrs. Francis Wilson.

McFate To Open Store

John J. McFate, who resides at 881 Fifth Ave., announced yesterday he had leased the store building formerly occupied by Hottel's Upland Furniture Co. at Second Ave. and C St. Mr. McFate formerly owned the A-1 Furniture Co. in Ontario.

He said the new store, to be known as "Mac's Furniture", will feature used as well as new furniture. He will also be a local representative of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

Slight interior changes are being made in the building prior to the formal opening of the new store.

The Upland Furniture Co. vacated the building to occupy its fine new structure on Euclid Ave. at C St.

Yesterday Today and Tomorrow

By Gerry McGeer

Well, a lot of us, who would never have believed it, now know that the Santana is something to really make itself felt.

The latest one seems to have been directed particularly toward my homestead. It uprooted the willow tree, took a tree out in front, some shingles off the roof and flattened the back fence. While taking pictures and going about in some of the worst of it I never thought anything was going to happen at my place. The half dozen missing shingles, the least of the damage, were back in place by the following Sunday. The roofer sent by the insurance company reported his company had received 1000 calls!

Dealing with the willow tree is something else again. House guest Grace has been sawing at the small branches and we have quite a pile for the street crew when they get around our way. The fence is awaiting I. D. Story's services.

To The Rescue

Mr. Story really was on deck when needed most. To his amazement yours truly arrived on his doorstep a little after 6:30 a.m., without taking time to more than put on a heavy coat. The situation was desperate because the willow at a dizzy angle was straddling the electric wires into the house. It looked as if they might be torn down in a matter of minutes.

He removed as much as he could, relieving the weight and it was about as hectic an operation as I want to see. Part of the tree still stands crazily, its roots humped out of the earth. Not until the power company men come will I feel that the power line into the house is secure again.

Clean-up Job

When the rest of the tree goes down we'll have another big clean up job on. The friend who is getting it for firewood, will have quite a supply. It was a big tree, with many branches.

The previous owner, however, planted it in the wrong place. It was a twice yearly task to keep it pruned. It was due for another trim when the storm came along.

I'd be happier, though, if my clean-up job was as expeditiously accomplished as that being done by the city. It is wonderful how fast the storm havoc is being cleaned up.

On Human Violence

Having covered a story concerning human violence over the weekend, I'm awfully glad that The Upland News has a minimum of such stories. Some of them have to be covered, but actually, few newspaper people enjoy such a task.

Personally I always feel terrible at having to enter the picture to find out why. And I am always surprised to find that people, caught in the web of tragic events, will talk without reservations.

But I will never understand the state of mind that will cause a seemingly normal person to murder or to destroy himself. Such events can be shocking to one who is uninvolved but if people contemplating such things could realize the grief they cause members of their families, there would be fewer murders, and no suicides.

It is possible to grow a persimmon tree from seed.

Grades, Reports At Round Table

Marion Adkison, principal, will moderate a panel on grade and report cards, at a meeting of the Cucamonga Central PTA parent education program, Dec 12, in the sixth grade classroom. Dr. Gerald Smith, supt. of the Bloomington school district, will be present as a second moderator.

As the round table discussion will be of vital interest to parents, all are urged to attend.

LEGION SLATE FOR DECEMBER

Commander Jos. Gheller of Upland post, The American Legion, announces the monthly schedule of Legion events for December, with a Christmas party for kiddies of Legionnaires highlighting the month on Dec. 19. Climaxing the month and the year will be the traditional New Year's Eve party, a gala event on Dec. 31.

Last night's regular business session opened the month's calendar, with the regular stag social night set for Friday. A stag steak dinner is set for next Wednesday, and other regular stag social nights are Dec. 13, 20, and 27. The second regular business meeting will be Dec. 18 with other regular events cancelled for the month.

Whitney Heads St. Louis Film Studio

Bradford Whitney, former Uplander, has been elected president of Condor Films, Inc., St. Louis, Mo., effective Dec. 1, it is announced by Board Chairman B. F. Stevens. Whitney was one of the organizers of the motion picture studio in 1951, and as vice-president in charge of production, has directed most of the films produced by the company.

Prior to the forming of Condor Films, Whitney was a television director at KSD-TV and for five years immediately after the war was executive director of the St. Louis Community playhouse. He is a graduate of Williams college and did post-graduate work at the Yale Drama school and Pasadena Playhouse.

Mr. Whitney has recently directed three of the annual Gridiron shows for the Advertising club of St. Louis and was recently elected to the club's board of governors.

A Lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve during the WW II, Mr. Whitney was in the initial invasion of Guadalcanal, followed by three years duty in Oran, Algeria. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Whitney, pioneer Uplanders, and a brother of Geo. Whitney, Upland planning commission chairman.

Christian Science Lesson Topic

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in the Christian Science churches on Sunday. "Every house is builded by some man but he that built all things is God," declared Paul to the Hebrews (3:4) in the words which comprise the Golden Text of the sermon.

From the words of Isaiah a selected passage in the lesson reads, "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else" (45:18).

Scientists' Thanksgiving

A service of gratitude and acknowledgement of God's goodness and power to bless and to destroy evil was held in the Ontario Christian Science church in Ontario on Thanksgiving Day when the sermon lesson, entitled, "Thanksgiving", was read, and grateful testimonies, suitable to the day, were given by members.

In addition, the Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President was read as was a quotation from Rev. 12:10,2, "Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ. . .Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. There was also a correlative passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, included in the service.

Burkholder Sermon To End Pastorate

Bishop Alvin C. Burkholder, pastor of the Brethren in Christ church, will bring the concluding message of his present term as pastor, at the 10:45 a.m. Sunday Service. His subject will be, "The God of Love and Peace Be with You."

Bishop Burkholder has served the local congregation as pastor for more than 14 years. He was called in 1931 and remained until 1940, at which time he resigned and served for 12 years as public relations director of Upland college.

In 1952 the congregation again asked for his services as pastor. This past June at the general conference of the Brethren in Christ, he was appointed to serve as Bishop of the Pacific and Mid-West conferences of the church. Thus it became necessary to resign the local pastorate. Rev. Eber Dourte, Waynesboro, Pa., will be installed as pastor on Sunday, Dec. 15.

Mission Head At Nazarene

Dr. Roy Smee of Kansas City, Mo., will be the guest speaker, Sunday, 7 p.m., in First Church of the Nazarene.

In recent years, Dr. Smee has been at general headquarters of the church as head of the Home Missions department. He tours the United States to establish new churches.

Prior to his present appointment he served as district superintendent of the Northern California district while organizing many new churches. The Rev. Nicholas A. Hull, district head of Southern California, is accompanying Dr. Smee.

Sunday School opens at 9:45 a.m., with seven departments meeting in opening assembly.

The Rev. Wm. E. Thompson, pastor, will speak during the 10:50 a.m. worship service when Mr. and Mrs. Larry Whitcomb, newcomers to Upland, will sing a vocal duet.

Special music during the evening service will include a number by the brass quartet, a vocal solo by Bertrum Sheets and a choir rendition by the college-Hi group.

Wm. Bowser, Native Son Dies

Wm. H. Bowser of Yucaipa, died Nov. 28, after an illness of several months.

Born in Upland in Oct. 1886, when it was known as North Ontario, he was the son of Wm. W. Bowser, an early pioneer of this area. Mr. Bowser lived in Ontario before moving to Yucaipa.

Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Velma Robinson of Escondido and Mrs. Edna Schweitzer of Yucaipa; two brothers, Charles A. Bowser of Upland and Leslie E. Bowser of Arkansas; seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Emerson mortuary in Yucaipa with interment following in Bellevue cemetery, Ontario.

PRESIDENTIAL FACT: President Eisenhower's administration, at the end of the next fiscal year, will have collected more taxes than the Truman administration, and more than all of the rest of the administrations from George Washington through Franklin Roosevelt.

Mayor Gregory Senatorial Winner

Fairly Even Support Of Two Demos Held Key To GOP Win

Results of the special senatorial election last week are being studied today in the light of Raymond H. Gregory's victory over three opponents.

Most observers look upon this win by the Republican mayor of San Bernardino as the result, largely, of the fairly even popularity of his two Democratic opponents.

Eugene G. Nisbet, former Upland mayor and at present assemblyman from this district, and Stanford Shaw, Ontario attorney, were the Democrats who divided the 36,563 Bourbon votes.

Semi-official returns throughout the county follow:

Gregory	22,119
Shaw	19,669
Nisbet	16,894
Wilson	4,879
Combined vote by parties follow:
Democratic	36,563
Republican	26,998

An analysis of the county-wide returns reveals that Mr. Gregory pulled a heavy margin in San Bernardino city with the Democratic contenders dividing the vote quite evenly in other sections of the county.

Following is the vote by communities of the west end of the county:

Upland
Shaw	840
Gregory	670
Nisbet	532
Wilson	24
Ontario
Shaw	2,474
Gregory	921
Nisbet	802
Wilson	378
Cucamonga-Guasti
Shaw	319
Gregory	163
Nisbet	120
Wilson	39
Alta Loma
Shaw	140
Gregory	73
Nisbet	38
Wilson	20

John McClary serves as assistant scoutmaster, with Ben Mackall as junior assistant scoutmaster. The troop now has its own scout hut on the grounds of Cucamonga Community center, and an oil heater has just been installed by Chas. Gardner.

Troop committeemen are Edw. H. Shotthafer, chairman; Messrs. Provost and Gardner, Kenneth Swauger, institutional representative; Boyd Laub, treasurer, and Eddie Piercy.

Saturday the troop had a daytime hike from the Scout hut into Cucamonga canyon and back. The troop meets each Wednesday, 7 p.m., in the Scout hut.

Smoke Control Devices Ready At Kaiser's

Completion of smoke control devices on all nine open hearth furnaces at Kaiser Steel's Fontana plant has been announced by George B. McMeans, vice president in charg charge of operations.

The devices called electrostatic precipitators, remove smoke particles from open hearth furnace exhaust. Mr. McMeans stated that, "While they are not 100 per cent effective, the precipitators do an amazing job in eliminating all but a fraction of the smoke."

"The installations represent the results of seven years of research, experimentation, engineering and construction effort," Mr. McMeans said. "They reflect an investment of over $5,500,000 for this equipment alone, a major part of the $8,500,000 Kaiser Steel has spent on air pollution control equipment since 1942."

The precipitator units are mounted on the roof of the open hearth building. The exhaust coming from a furnace is first cooled in newly built waste heat boilers from 1,000 degrees F. down to about 500 degrees F. It is then blown up a 70 foot duct into the precipitator which is composed of two chambers, each measuring 40 by 20 by 20 feet.

Inside these chambers are a number of steel rods and "curtains". When the smoke particles enter the chamber, they are given an electrical charge. They are immediately attracted to the curtain, which carries an opposite charge.

Right To Work Issue

Indications are that a "right to work" initiative will be on the November, 1958 ballot. Californians have heard considerably about the "right to work" issue with the appearance of Wm. S. Knowland as a gubernatorial candidate.

We are going to hear much more because this issue is highly explosive, politically. Organized labor considers the issue the most important one confronting it. And the issue is coming at a time when organized labor prestige is at a low ebb due to revealtions by Congressional committees.

A Republican Victory?

Republicans are rejoicing over the election of Raymond H. Gregory of San Bernardino as the new state senator from this county. Personally, however, we cannot get much elation in studying the figures of last week's election.

Rather than a victory for Mr. Gregory, we would say the Democrats defeated themselves through their own stupidity or due to the rivalry between two factions in the county Democratic organization.

We were amazed many weeks ago when Eugene G. Nisbet of Upland became an opponent of Stanford Shaw, Ontario, both being Democrats. In the end, they defeated each other. Their combined vote far overshadowed Mr. Gregory's winning total.

All of which builds up interest in the 1958 local elections.

What Would You Eliminate?

What makes your tax bill high? Or, is it really too high?

Has your tax bill in recent years increased faster than your own personal income?

Residents usually want a lot of service . . . then later along comes the tax bill. Then we complain. The school crossing guards, for example, add a penny or two to the tax bill. Clean streets, with sound pavement, street lights, good fire and police protection, a smokeless city dump and fair pay for plenty of city employes all add up.

The city budget, of course, is only one small part of the total tax bill. The county government, the school districts, the Metropolitan Water district and other district taxes are included.

What services do you want omitted? Or, should we have a very austere economy program in all of governmental agencies?

Try It In Upland

What happens to the local citrus industry is of concern to every one here. Likewise, what happens to the local downtown business community is of direct interest to all residents in the area. As residents in a community, everyone is affected by the welfare of almost every community activity and enterprise.

Today's discussion in these columns is about the new life that is evident among Upland merchants. A corporation is being formed to serve as a promotional agency. Through it, all of the presently zoned downtown business area can be adequately publicized as a complete "shopping center."

The admonition, "Try Upland First" should have new meaning. Within a few months, new off-street parking lots will be realized. Additional store buildings will be modernized and the 60 downtown retail and service firms can more effectively serve people in the Upland-Foothill area.

If you can get what you want in Upland you should buy at home. Every time you buy something, you pay a sales tax. Your "sales tax money" left in Upland goes directly to the city treasury. The bigger the sales tax income, less will be the income needed from other tax sources. Of course, the sales tax you leave in some other city or some other county, helps your neighbors, not your home town.

You are not expected to "penalize" yourself in being loyal and buying in your home community. Usually, you can find what you need right here and thus save yourself much time and effort and also help your own community.

Imagine what it would mean to your community IF EVERYTHING YOU SPENT WAS SPENT IN YOUR HOME TOWN.

Upland merchants are preparing to be of greater service to you.

This country has set all manner of records in recent times. A new one has just been announced by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Harrington. Last year the American people paid an all-time high of $80,171,971,000 in federal taxes—more than the total internal revenue collected from 1789 through 1938, and some $5 billion above the 1956 figure. All major classes of taxes contributed to the increase, the largest gains occuring in individual income and employment tax collections.

The oil industry has a capital investment that works out to $38,000 for each employe, as compared with $8,600 for manufacturing as a whole. The average annual salary per worker is $5,259 and welfare benefits cost the industry $1,278 a year for each hourly-paid employe.

Sharps and Flats

By Chuck Barlow

A fine old American custom is being blotted out by hypocrisy. What was once an accepted way of life is now frowned on by such as Emily Post and leaders in the social relations field.

Dunking is fast being relegated to the "untouchable" cast. A dunker is about as welcome in good society as a moonshiner in the treasury department. Dunking in public is almost a thing of the past.

For the life of me, I can't see anything wrong with genteel dunking. I'm strictly against the slurping, splashing, sloshing type of dunking and think same should be relegated to the hogpen.

But to quietly dunk and consume the dunked without fuss or noise seems to me to be quite all right. Dunking, where people smear the soaked food over chin, Adam's apple and shirt front, is not acceptable. But such a display, by a dunker, indicates a rank amateur. Such amateurs should spend hours in their own kitchens before saliying forth to display in public places.

A qualified dunker, can at a quick glance determine the absorption point of any piece of pastry offered for dunking. This sense becomes highly developed over the years. The age of the pastry, its moisture content and how long it should be submerged is computed faster, by the expert dunker, than by an electric brain.

It isn't often the expert dunker makes a mistake in judgment. When exposed to a new type of pastry or in change of climates where extreme moisture or dryness prevails, the experienced dunker might err.

Wives who frown on husbands and children dunking during meals often revert to this awful practise during a neighborhood coffee klatch during the day time.

My claim is, that if dunking is permissible in the shuttered privacy of one's own home, it should be permissible any place. If wife, mother, mother-in-law, teacher, society leader, social instructor and others find it okay to dunk at home, why isn't it acceptable in public?

I've yet to sit down in the privacy of a friend's kitchen, with two or three present, that dunking didn't appear in its most terrible form before the conference ended. Regardless of station in life, education, family connections and accessibility to writings on proper etiquette, all present would have a dunk or two. . .generally more, before the session was over.

People must, by force in many cases, be ever watchful to keep from dunking in public. If they fall into a state of reverie, the doughnut is liable to realize that etiquetts has been breached.

Dunking can be put down as an emphasis on verility. Those men of the past who hacked this nation out of forest and desert were dunkers of the highest type. The only times they didn't dunk was when there was nothing to dunk.

From Valley Forge to San Juan Hill our makers of history have dunked their way. Dunking wasn't the issue when President Lincoln was having troubles with his generals. He didn't care if they dunked or not, if they could do a good job of being a general.

Now that this nation is getting soft, our mannerisms are turning to the effeminite. Thus we find a curtailment of that masculine trait. . .dunking.

Actually, no one I've talked to wants to quit dunking in public. Many like myself insist that it is approved as a stipulation in the "bill of rights" in the Constitution.

Besides, I couldn't possibly be a successful hypocrite on this dunking at home and not dunking in public. Any time I have a cup of coffee and a doughnut the two will get together in spite of me.

After all, the doughnut is a natural after-thought and was undoubtedly invented by a coffee lover. Why separate that which, by nature belongs together?

(Editor's Note: You go your way, Nature Boy, and I'll go mine. Down with all dunkers!)

(Teletypesetter's Note: I'm with you Chuck, down with all non-dunkers!)

TIME PASSES

25 Years Ago

Upland city councilmen decided to have 20 acres of city owned property on 23rd St. cleared by relief labor, as a relief measure. The property had been acquired 10 years previously for possible use in water development.

A sequel to this news story is the fact that the city, which developed the property at a nominal cost, was able to sell it at a substantial profit, after lemons were planted. Much of the cost of Upland's beautiful city hall was covered by this sale. R. G. Manley, who was city services manager at the time, has been given credit for this farsighted action.

Another page one story reported that Upland had no current worries as to city finances. Members of the council meeting to study reports busied themselves mostly with discussing projects for future work. A constructive plan to benefit the city and at the same time provide work for the needy was sought.

The News reported, "The city's plan of adopting a budget at the beginning of the fiscal year and then strictly observing that budget is proving highly beneficial to the city."

The First Methodist church members had set their hopes on the installation of a pipe organ in the new church by Easter and a committee was named to effect this purpose. Cost was to be approximately $5,000. Members of the committee were Mmes. Ralph Wilson, Fannie Gay, W. H. Dundas, Dr. Irvin A. Engle, and Melvin Armstrong. Members of the finance committee for the project were Jas. E. Goodban, Wiley W. Mather, E. A. Dart and Bert Hendy.

The city treasury was enriched by $259 in fines assessed in the Justice court by Judge Geo. R. Crane.

Leigh Thompson, Kendle Hill and Robt. Henderson obtained record bags of quail and band tail doves as the hunting season was nearing a close.

Alta Loma residents attended a mass meeting to discuss community problems. The main purpose of the meeting, called by volunteer firemen, was to acquaint residents with the advantages of having a protected fire district.

15 Years Ago

Draft calls were taking large numbers of local men. Going from Upland, after being called by Selective Service, were Fortunata P. Sarabia, Hugh R. McMillan, Chas. J. Coe Jr., Guadalupe M. Nava, Albert Moya, Alejandro A. Cortez, Richard L. Giannoni, Manuel H. Rojas, Sullivan Carwell, Stephen G. Malacar, Anaclito C. Laria, Frank R. Goodban, John J Patton, Samuel O. Gill, Antonio L. Adame, Manuel Atencio.

Called from Cucamonga were Antonio Ledesma, Marcus A. Lopez, Gilbert Sanchez, Serafin Moreno, Roberto J. Rojo, Antonio P. Torrez, Fernando C. Rodriguez, Augustin B. Martinez, Jesus C. Navarro, Jose C. Sierra and Daniel Jiminez.

Alta Loma selectees were Marvin S. Voth, Jesus J. Gutierrez and Sherwood G. Beck. Called from Guasti were Aldo Zanrosso and Reyes Hernandez.

Air observers were slated to receive increased gas allotments.

Named as a committee to direct Boy Scout activities were Howard N. Mason, chairman; O. E. Atwood, vice chairman; Warren Wass, camping; Clyde DuVall, advancement; Robt. Marineau safety; Dr. T. T. Ackerman, health; Don Meredith, organization, E. E. Hawthorne, training. Other members were Jas. McCoy, H. L. McLellan, Jas. Goodban and Harry Plum.

A six-column picture on page one showed the Kaiser Steel plant, with only three stacks and coke ovens in process of completion at the plant which was soon to be turning out sheet metal for battleships, according to a page one story. The plant had been visited by the Upland Lions club.

All agencies in the area interested in recreational activities and the prevention of juvenile delinquency were called to a meeting to form the Ontario Co-ordinating council.

Postal receipts in Upland were increased by almost 100 percent. Total November volume was $34,211.05 as compared with $18,537.11 for the same month of the previous year.

Dr. James V. Latimer — This Life We Live

LET'S BE PLEASANT

As we enter upon this Christmas Season I am thinking not so much about my own family and of what I shall give but about that fine group of people who serve us and never complain. These are the patient girls and some men behind our counters. It is so easy for us to enjoy a leisurely breakfast at home, then read for an hour or so, and after lunch to drive down town for some shopping and become irritated if we do not get the service demanded. My sympathy is with those who serve us, and not with those who become critical, irritated and cross if things do not go just as they wish. During these next few weeks I shall try to be more considerate and kind.

I have known how the Staff is schooled in the idea that The Customer Is Always Right. For one, I do not believe it. I am quite sure that it would do some of us good to be bawled out at times and to be told that the fine people who serve us are not slaves. Yet these good people keep courteous and helpfully kind. Let me illustrate:

A good friend of ours has been behind the counter since the early 30's, when business went to smash. Their home went also, because the firm could not complete the contracts entered into. Yet during all these years she has retained her enthusiasm and the fine spirit of service. I have admired her attitude and have wondered how she has been able to keep pleasant. I can write of her experiences because she lives far away from our own quiet city. I have asked for her estimate of customers in general and of some in particular and have learned much that was helpful—to me at least. These incidents will illustrate what I mean:

A woman came to her and asked for a Box of Thumb Nails. By quick thinking she was able to offer her some thumb tacks. Another asked for some Decoys for the Bath Room. A newlywed and her husband spent nearly a half-hour on the purchase of a clothes line, and finally asked, "Will this be long enough to make two lengths" The answer was that if it was not long enough maybe the post could be moved a bit. The sale was completed. Then there was another who asked for a Luminia Kettle for the Mud Room. Evidently she meant her kitchen. And still another one asked for a Baby Evaporator. Only quick thinking can meet the demands of our buying public, and the sales girls have it. Some men are good, too.

In these weeks of confusion, rush and spent nerves I trust we may remember that these fine people behind counters are human beings such as we are. While we can take matters easily during the morning hours they need to be up at six in order to complete their work at home in time to serve us at eight. Their feet hurt as ours do at times, and they grow hungry too and weary. Along late in the afternoon some of those who serve us would give much just to get away for a few minutes to rest or to stretch out on the couch and relax—but they cannot leave and our demands continue. Yet they carry on and are kind, thoughtful, willing and courteous.

Let us then try to be a bit more considerate during these coming weeks of tension and strain. If we are, some fine soul will remember us with thanksgiving and will call us blessed. That would be reward enough for me.

Let us then try to be pleasant during these Twenty Hectic Days 'Till Christmas.

YMCA Youth Service Given Top Priority By Study Group: Upland Committee Suggested

Continuation of the existing group and community centered program of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs, Indian Guides, gymnasium, boxing and weight lifting classes, with emphasis on service to youth, were recommended in a report by the area YMCA study committees, it was revealed this week by Robt. Jennings, Ontario-Upland YMCA director.

The study committees also recommended that the YMCA operate from the existing YMCA center on W. "C" St., Ontario, with a local Upland committee and perhaps eventually an office in Upland. The geographical boundary of the Ontario-Upland YMCA service areas was established as the Chaffey school district.

Need Larger Staff

Expansion of the present YMCA program cannot be realized without additional staff, the committe indicated.

Adoption of the Omaha Unit plan was accordingly recommended. This is a plan developed and tested for several years by the YMCA of Omaha, Neb., to determine staff load, when to add staff (either part time or full time), and how to finance such growth. Further study recommendations were made in relation to finance and facilities.

The study report was presented by Paul Meyer and Sheldon Swenson, Associate Executives, of the Pacific Southwest Area YMCA.

Plan Priorities

A committee from the YMCA board of directors was appointed to develop Priorities and set up a time table, for their accomplishment. Also, this committee is to up a comprehensive program policy. This committee will report to the "Y" board at its Jan. 16 meeting.

The YMCA study was started last May, and has consisted of interviews with a number of representative people in Ontario, Upland and Cucamonga. A questionnaire was also sent to "Y" members, parents, ministers, school people, and business and industrial leaders of Ontario, Upland and Cucamonga. Much factual material relating to the population trends, school enrollments, social statistics, income and giving habits of the communities, as well as statistics and material relating to the Ontario-Upland YMCA program and related YMCA's, was used in making the study.

Study Committees

The Study groups were: Executive committee, Homer Briggs, Ernest Payne, Mrs. Ruth Zenz, Don Maroney, George Vinnedge, Gene Alair, Chas. Smith, Bud Ehrnman and the Rev. Trusten A. Hart; Program Committee, Dr. Lyle W. Callow, Robt. Thrall, H. W. Swinney, Hal Stewart, Bruce Grube, Paul Cushing Jr., Rev. Hart, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Zenz, Ernest Payne and Homer Briggs; Finance Committee, Messrs. Maroney, Vinnedge, Ehrnman, Dr. M. C. Barnes, Alair, Ehrnman, Dr. M. C. Barnes, Dr. C. Norman Abbott, Joe Kamansky, Thos Barrow, Joe Hecht, Tom Parker and Alan Barr.

Other reports were made at the Board meeting by the YMCA house committee, public relations committee and business committee. Plans were made to celebrate YMCA week Jan. 19 - 26. The program will consist of talks to service clubs, programs in the churches and a YMCA open house on Sunday, Jan. 26.

A recommendation of the house committee to install chains on the 'Y" parking lot and retain the use of the lot for "Y" members and users was passed.

Two Girls Write Ecstatically On Their Hometown, Upland

Published here are two more of the seven finalists in the composition competition on the subject, "Why I Like To Live In Upland" sponsored by Chas. R. Latimer in eighth grades of public schools of San Bernardino county. These two compositions were finalists of Upland Jr. High school, where Carol Bauermeister was the winner. Her entry is now in the county-wide judging.

Barbara Johnson, 13, of 775 Redding way, wrote as follows: "Most people would agree that Upland is a friendly community and is not a large city. Some people will think a small city can't be progressive but Upland is.

Upland Has Everything

"If you were to look around, you would see that Upland has nice schools and churches and it is a very clean city (city and streets). Upland is close to large shopping centers and lots of entertainment parks such as Disneyland, Santa's Village, skiing at the mountains, etc. Recreational programs for young people, clubs, etc., are also found in Upland. If needed, there is excellent fire and police protection; also excellent doctors and a hospital. When you go to college there are nice colleges nearby.

"You hardly ever need to worry about the weather because it is perfect most of the time.

"Anything you want may be found in or near Upland."

Most Beautiful Town

Another finalist was Donna Jeanne Livingston, 12, of 1181 N. Quince Ave. Like Barbara, she is an English student of Donald Bowers. She wrote as follows:

"I like to live in Upland because I think Upland is the most beautiful town in the world. Its rolling hills and beautiful mountains give it a scenic beauty that will hold you spellbound. Upland is not noisy with traffic like a big city, and it is a nice, quiet place to live in.

"When it snows in Upland it is especially beautiful; the orange and lemon tree leaves are covered with snow, and the ground looks like someone rolled out a white carpet for a king. You feel like you are living in paradise, and it will give you a feeling you have never had before anyplace.

"Euclid Ave. is another thing I like about Upland. The beautiful pepper trees are just right for Euclid, and it seems that they were created by God to be put there.

"And I guess that's why I love (not like, but love) to live in Upland."

Rezonings Given Nod, Nay By PC

One application for a zone change was approved and one was turned down by the Upland City planners last week. In each case, applicants sought to get permission to allow multiple family dwelling where single family residences are permitted by the zoning ordinance.

The northwest corner of 13th St. and Fifth Ave. was the area receiving a "No" answer from the planners. Among those protesting the application were B. A. Root, 1318 Winston Ct.; Robt. Hayes, 1348 Winston Ct.; Kenneth Olson, 1367 Winston Ct.; Michale Liberatore, 1336 Winston Ct. and R. C. Thomas, 1330 Winston Ct. The applicant was D. L. Arrasmith & Son.

Harold Engle was the successful applicant for a zone change from R-1 to R-3 on both sides of First Ave. A protest was filed from Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jackson, 370 Euclid Pl.

Other applications approved was from the Methodist church for conditional use permission to build Sunday school facilities on the west side of First Ave. at C St., and from Elbert M. Ashley to erect additional dwelling units on N. First Ave.

Truck Route On Campus Is Proposed

Development of a new route for truck use and other public use on Campus Ave., from 19th St. south, is seen today as one of the alternatives in the Upland city council effort to relieve truck traffic from Euclid Ave.

Unofficial and tentative cost of making Campus useable for heavy traffic is estimated at $25,000. This figure is given on the assumption that rights-of-way could be obtained from the San Bernardino county flood control district. If the route could be slightly changed to avoid costly construction of bridges over flood control dikes, the outlay would be less, it is explained.

Councilman Wm. Kistinger is chairman of the committee studying possible alternatives in providing an acceptable route for trucks serving the local rock producing industry. If the Campus route is eventually approved, the aim would be to get the money from the rock company owners, truck users, the San Antonio Water Co. and the city.

At 14th St., the proposed route would incline east to avoid residential areas and to connect at Foothill Blvd. on the flood control diversion channel.

Another alternative is for the Santa Fe to change its route of the freight spur leading to 19th St. with a new truck roadway to be adjacent to the freight right-of-way.

Mr. Kistinger indicated that it would "take time to realize any change". He said the councilmen are being kept advised of all development and he expressed optimism in having something definite to report at an early date.

"Picnic", First VCT Play Of 11th Season, Opens

Florence Abbott (Mrs. Glenn) of 885 Altura way, Upland, opened last night in Valley Community theatre's first production of the season, "Picnic," being presented nightly through Saturday in Claremont Woman's club house. Mrs. Abbott enacts the role of the mother in the drama.

"Picnic", one of the high spots among recent Broadway productions, and more recently a top flight movie, is the first play of the 11th season to be presented by Valley Community theater, which opened last evening in Claremont Woman's club house. Three more regular 8:15 p.m. performances are scheduled for tonight, Friday and Saturday nights in the club house, 343 W. 12th St., Claremont.

Written by Wm. Inge, the play's local production is directed by Taylor Messom, who scored a smash hit in VCT's spring production of "Tender Trap", and promises to be a polished and highly entertaining offering.

The action takes place in the backyards of two middle-aged small town women, Flo Owens, played by Florence Abbott of Upland, and Hellen Fotts, played by Bobbie Smith.

Both characters have long since been deserted by their husbands. One has an invalid mother and the other, two maturing daughters, Millie and Madge, and a spinster school teacher boarder. Into this congested female atmosphere there comes a young man of neither polish nor promise, who, with animal vitality seriously upsets the entire group. Tom Allen takes the role of Hal Carter, the intruder.

Reservations for seats may be made by telephoning Lycoming 6-3581.

AN IMPORTANT MILESTONE IN SMOKE CONTROL

SMOKE CONTROL EQUIPMENT NOW OPERATING ON ALL NINE OPEN HEARTH FURNACES

BEFORE: Smoke billows forth from stacks of Kaiser Steel's open hearth furnaces.

AFTER: A switch is pulled, and new equipment literally cleans the air before your eyes.

WE ARE sincerely proud to announce the successful installation and operation of smoke control devices on our nine open hearth stacks. This represents the result of seven years of research, experimentation, engineering, and construction effort. It reflects an investment for this equipment alone of more than $5,500,000.

These massive facilities are known as electrostatic precipitators. They are the most effective devices yet developed for the control of smoke particles from open hearth stacks. While they are not 100 per cent effective, they do an amazing job in eliminating all but a fraction of the smoke.

A Continuing and Costly Responsibility

But important as this milestone is to air control, we realize our over-all job is not yet done. The very nature of steel production involves furnace heating of large quantities of iron ore, coal, limestone, and other minerals each year. There is no escaping the fact that this activity results in smoke and dust.

For this reason Henry J. Kaiser gave orders before the plant opened in 1942 that we use every known way to keep operations from being a nuisance to our neighbors. That's why at nearly every location in the plant some special engineering has been done or some special piece of equipment has been installed to help curb smoke and dust. The total cost of this program to date has been in excess of $8,500,000. This represents one of the most extensive smoke control programs of any steel mill in the United States today.

Progress Through Research

An important part of our air control effort is the staff of 17 scientists and technical personnel in our air control and research department. Assisted by our large and experienced engineering department at the plant, their job is to study every area of smoke and dust emission for the purpose of finding practical ways to improve the situation. Through their combined efforts—and through the cooperation of Kaiser Engineers as well as leading air control equipment manufacturers—definite and regular progress has been made in the past and will continue to be made in the future.

A large share of this work involves pioneering in the truest sense of the word. On many occasions we have had to solve problems that had never before been tackled by the steel industry. On other occasions we have had to make adaptations of air control principles to the specific conditions as they exist in our plant. With each successful step forward in smoke and dust control, we have become better qualified to meet the next problem.

We will continue these efforts—independently and in cooperation with County Air Pollution Control officials—to take whatever further practical steps are necessary to keep the air clean. You can be sure we intend to continue doing our part as a good neighbor.

Public Invited

Kaiser Steel extends a cordial invitation to our friends and neighbors to visit our plant and observe the size and nature of our smoke control program.

Plant tours are conducted each week-day at 2:00 p.m. for those interested.

May we take this opportunity of expressing our thanks—to you, the public, to our board of supervisors, to air pollution control officers, to city councils and civic leaders, and to newspaper people—for your patience and understanding in this difficult and important problem.

Euclid Entrance To Parking Lot Allowed By City

Permission to create a driveway entrance from Euclid Ave. to the parking lot of the new professional building at the southwest corner of Euclid Ave. and Ninth St. has been granted Robt. S. Gray by the city council.

Mr. Gray had requested a variance for the necessary curb break, prohibited by city ordinance, as the normal traffic flow of a parking lot is ingress from the main street and egress to the alley or secondary street (9th St. in this case), and traffic signals to be installed at Ninth and Euclid would cause a back-up of traffic on Ninth, preventing ingress to the parking lot from Ninth St., and would also tend to cause a traffic hazard for incoming cars from Euclid on Ninth, which would be turning left in front of oncoming Ninth St. traffic.

The variance was granted on the basis that traffic safety would best be served by the Euclid Ave. entry, subject to State Highway dept. approval, and that no egress be provided on Euclid Ave.
